Last year 22,000 people bought Apple shirts from The Apple Collection—people who like the way we make Apple® computers.

At The Apple Collection we find manufacturers who make their products the way we make our computers.

We put our logo on these products because we appreciate their quality, and think you will, too. They come from such outstanding companies as Tiffany, Braun, Bree, ixi:z, Lamy, Mistral, Honda, and others you might not be familiar with yet.

They're the kinds of products we'd make ourselves. So each comes with our guarantee: if you're not totally satisfied with any item, you can return it within 30 days for a full refund.

If you're one of those people who like our computers, we think you'll like the products in our collection.

— The people at The Apple Collection.
